Dear Parent/Carer

Re: Year 11 Summer Series Examinations 2023

In preparation for the forthcoming summer examinations, I am writing to inform you of the necessary arrangements, and outline herewith the key information for all candidates.

It is essential that all students adhere to the JCQ (Joint Council for Qualifications) guidelines. For information, I have enclosed a copy of the instructions from JCQ. This includes the materials which can or cannot be taken into an exam room, as well as key information regarding the use of electronic devices. Please note, students are no longer allowed to take a wristwatch into the examination room.

Please refer to the JCQ documents enclosed:

- Written examinations – FAQs for candidates
- Privacy notice
- Social Media Information for Candidates
- Non-Examination Assessments
- Coursework Assessments

We are duty-bound to formally report any matters relating to malpractice to the relevant exam board. It is essential that your daughter hands her mobile phone or any other electronic devices to the Exams Team prior to each exam or stores it in a secure place (changing room 5) or her locker.

The procedures and processes for examinations must remain fair and accurate during any examination, which take place both in school and nationally. Our robust procedures ensure we remain a verified examination centre each year.

Please take time to read the enclosed information and go through this with your daughter. A copy of this information will also be placed in each examination room. Students will also be reminded at the beginning of each examination. Each student has been provided with an individual copy of their exam timetable. A copy of the full exam timetable can be accessed via our school webpage www.stjulies.org.uk. I can confirm that morning exams will commence at 9.00 am prompt and all afternoon sessions will start at 1.00 pm prompt (national start times for public examinations). Exam access arrangements are in place for identified students, however it is essential that all students check their individual exam timetable to ensure they arrive at the correct exam room.

The first exam, of the summer examination series, will start on Monday 15 May 2023, and the last exam will be on Wednesday 21 June 2023. The final date of exams will not involve all students and it is important to check the school website for further details. Students must arrive to school at least 30-minutes before an exam to give them plenty of time to prepare before the exam starts. A free breakfast will be available from 8.00 am for all Year 11 students during the summer exam series (from Monday 15 May 2023), which will include a hot and cold breakfast as well as fruit and water. Bespoke revision sessions will also continue in the lead up to exams. All students must wear full school uniform for all public examinations and revision sessions.

We will continue to encourage students to attend all revision sessions and we expect all students to have their revision plans well underway by this stage in the year. All students have been provided with a revision timetable and continue to receive support on a daily basis within lessons, and during lunchtime and after-school sessions. Revision materials (including GCSE Pod and a USB pen with past papers and mark schemes) were given to all students before Christmas. Additional revision resources will be provided in the lead up to public examinations. We encourage students to study for a minimum of three hours each evening in order to achieve the very best outcomes in their GCSE exams.

Study leave will not be permitted for any student during the examination season. Previous years have demonstrated that students achieve higher grades by being present in school and attending all lessons and additional revision sessions. Masterclasses will be built into the school timetable in the lead up to examinations. Year 11 students will have exclusive access to B001, which has a full suite of computers and will be available throughout the day. Normal attendance procedures will continue throughout the exam season.

In preparation for the Summer Exam Series 2023, please find outlined below the responsibilities of ALL students:

- All Year 11 report to the dining room from 8.00 am each morning, starting from Monday 15 May. Students must report to this area no later than 8.30am each morning. A free breakfast will be available each morning for all Year 11 students throughout the exam season.
- Students use the sign in sheets on arrival at the dining room.
- Students must check and double check their seat number (displayed in the dining room or on their individual exam timetable). Once Year 11 Form Tutors arrive to register students there must be silence.
- Each exam venue and seat row will be called out. Students entitled to exam access arrangements will be called first (8.40 am) and directed to the correct exam room.
- Students must listen carefully to instructions and then line up in the dining room (8.45am), where the Progress Leader and Assistant Progress Leader will be present to check attendance, tick present on the seating plan list and line students up in the correct seating order. Students will then be escorted by a member of staff to the relevant exam venue from this point.
- All students must hand in their mobile phones to the Progress Leader, member of staff from the Exams team or lock safely in their lockers before 8.30am.
- All students must remain on site and attend lessons or revision as normal until 3.15pm each day.
- For PM examinations Year 11, students must report to the dining room no later than 12.30 pm. Students must use the signing-in sheets on arrival at the dining room.
- All students must adhere to the JCQ guidelines which relate to conduct during examinations.
- Any bags or personal belongings must be kept to a minimum and placed in Changing Room 5 (this room will then be locked during exams). School will take no responsibility for the loss of valuable items. All valuable items must be handed in prior to the start of the exam, this does not include electronic devices or mobile phones which must be handed to a member of staff prior to entering the exam room.

Warning to Candidates

1. You must be on time for all your examinations.
2. Possession of a mobile phone or other unauthorised material is not allowed even if you do not intend to use it. You will be subject to penalty and possible disqualification from the exam/qualification.
3. You must not talk to, attempt to communicate with or disturb other candidates once you have entered the examination room.
4. You must follow the instructions of the invigilator.
5. You must not sit an examination in the name of another candidate.
6. You must not become involved in any unfair or dishonest practice in any part of the examination.
7. If you are confused about anything, only speak to an invigilator.

The Warning to Candidates must be displayed in a prominent place outside each examination room. This may be a hard copy A3 paper version or an image of the poster projected onto a wall or screen for all candidates to see.

Information for Candidates

Information About You and How We Use It

You have entered general or vocational qualifications such as GCSE, A-level, functional skills qualifications etc with one or more of the awarding bodies listed above. In order to be able to provide examinations and assessments, the awarding body needs to collect and use information about you. This notice provides you with a high level summary of the information the awarding body is required by law to give you about what happens to that information. For more detail see each awarding body's full Privacy Notice:

Who we are and how to contact us

Each awarding body is a separate organisation. Your school or examination centre will be able to confirm to you which awarding body is delivering each qualification you are undertaking and you will receive a statement confirming what qualifications you have been entered for and which awarding body. You will find links to each awarding body's website and information on how to contact them here: <https://www.jcq.org.uk/contact-our-members/>

Information about you and from where it is obtained

Each awarding body whose qualifications you enter will need to use a variety of information about you. This includes obvious identification details such as your name, address, date of birth and your school or examination centre. It also includes information about your gender, race and health, where appropriate. This information is provided by you or your parents/guardians and/or by your school or examination centre.

Each awarding body will create certain information about you such as a candidate number, examination results and certificates.

You will find further information about this in the awarding bodies' full Privacy Notice (see links above) or by contacting the awarding body (see above).

What happens to the information about you

The awarding bodies use the information about you to deliver the examinations and assessments which you have entered. This includes making a variety of arrangements for you to sit the examinations or assessments, marking, providing you and your school or centre with results and certificates. The awarding bodies also use some of the information about you for equality monitoring and other statistical analysis.

The awarding bodies may share information about your results with official bodies such as the Department for Education and the examinations regulators (e.g. Ofqual in England) and also relevant local authorities and the Universities and Colleges Admissions Service (UCAS). An awarding body may also use information about you to investigate cheating and other examination malpractice and will share information about malpractice with other awarding bodies.

The awarding bodies take the security of the information about you that they hold seriously.

You will find further, technical information about what the awarding bodies do with information about you, why and the legal basis in the awarding bodies' full Privacy Notice, which can be accessed here (see links on page one) or by contacting the awarding body (see above).

Your rights

The law gives you a number of rights in relation to the information about you that the awarding bodies hold. Those rights are:

- Access – you are entitled to ask each awarding body about the information it holds about you.
- Rectification – you are entitled to ask each awarding body to correct any errors in the information that it holds about you.
- Erasure – in certain circumstances you are entitled to ask each awarding body to erase the information about you that it holds.
- Object to or restrict processing – in certain circumstances you are entitled to ask each awarding body to stop using information about you in certain ways.
- Complain – you are entitled to complain to the Information Commissioner (the body regulating the use of personal information) about what each awarding body does with information about you.

You will find further information about your rights in relation to information about you in the awarding bodies' full Privacy Notice, which can be accessed here (see links on page one) or by contacting the awarding body (see above).

How long the information about you is held

Each awarding body retains information about you only for as long as it is needed. Some of the information is needed only during the period in which you are undertaking the examination or assessment and is securely destroyed a short while afterwards. Other information about you, such as your name, gender, address, qualification and subjects entered and the results, are held indefinitely and for at least 40 years.

Each awarding body has its own retention policy that sets out what information it retains, how it is retained and for how long. You can find out more about retention policies by contacting each awarding body (see above).

How to find out more about the information about you that the awarding bodies use

To find out more about the information about you that the awarding bodies collect and use, including what happens to that information and why, you can review the awarding bodies' full Privacy Notice, which can be accessed here (see links on page one) or contact the awarding body. You will find links to each awarding body's website and information on how to contact them here: <https://www.jcq.org.uk/contact-our-members/>.

Please note

It is important to note that this notice concerns only how the awarding bodies use information about you (called your "personal data"). Complaints about how an awarding body handles your personal data can be made to the Information Commissioner (www.ico.org.uk). Information about the examinations and assessments themselves, including the rules about assessments, can be found on the JCQ Exams Office pages (www.jcq.org.uk/exams-office). The awarding bodies are regulated by Ofqual (<https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/ofqual>) in England; Qualifications Wales (www.qualificationswales.org) in Wales, and the Council for the Curriculum, Examinations and Assessment (<http://ccea.org.uk/regulation>) in Northern Ireland.

Information for candidates Using social media and examinations/assessments

Image by Patrice Jones

This document has been written to help you stay within exam regulations.
Please read it carefully.

We all like to share our experiences when taking exams and sharing ideas with others online can be helpful when you're studying or revising.

However, it is important to consider what you say and to think about what information is being shared as there are limits to what you can share and you need to be careful not to break the rules. The rules are in place to ensure that exams are fair to everyone, students don't become worried about false rumours and any real issues can be sorted out quickly by the right people.

We'd like to ask you to act responsibly when discussing online. If you're in doubt about what you can and can't discuss online regarding your exams, it's always best to check with your teacher.

If you receive what is or what looks to be assessment related information through social media, or any other means, you must tell your teacher or another member of staff. You must show them what you have received (if available). They will then report the matter to the awarding body and it will be investigated.

Where candidates breach the rules for examinations, controlled assessments, coursework or non-examination assessments, awarding bodies have an obligation to investigate and may apply penalties.

You need to know that the following would be malpractice:

- copying or allowing work to be copied – e.g. posting written work on social networking sites prior to an examination/assessment;
- collusion: allowing others to help produce your work or helping others with theirs;
- asking others about what questions your exam will include (even if no one tells you);
- having or sharing details about exam questions before the exam - whether you think these are real or fake; or
- not telling exam boards or your school/college about exam information being shared.

Penalties that awarding bodies apply include:

- a written warning;
- the loss of marks for a section, component or unit;
- disqualification from a unit, all units or qualifications; or
- a ban from taking assessments or exams for a set period of time.

Please take the time to familiarise yourself with the JCQ rules:

REVISION ONE

Information for candidates

Written examinations

With effect from 1 September 2022

Published on: 1 September 2022

Revision one: 7 February 2023

Produced on behalf of:

This document has been written to help you.
Read it carefully and follow the instructions.

If there is anything you do not understand, especially which calculator you may use, ask your teacher.

This document was first published on 1 September 2022. It was amended on 7 February 2023. Where a subsequent amendment has been made, the text is highlighted in yellow.

A. Regulations – Make sure you understand the rules

- 1 Be on time for all your exams. If you are late, your work might not be accepted.
- 2 Do not become involved in any unfair or dishonest practice during the exam.
- 3 If you try to cheat, or break the rules in any way, you could be disqualified from all your subjects.
- 4 You must not take into the exam room:
  - (a) notes;
  - (b) an iPod, a mobile phone, a MP3/4 player or similar device, or a watch.

Any pencil cases taken into the exam room must be see-through.

Remember: possession of unauthorised material is breaking the rules, even if you do not intend to use it, and you will be subject to penalty and possible disqualification.

- 5 If you have a watch, the invigilator will ask you to hand it to them.
- 6 Do not use correcting pens, fluid or tape, erasable pens, highlighters or gel pens in your answers.
- 7 Do not talk to or try to communicate with, or disturb other candidates once the exam has started.
- 8 You must not write or draw offensive or obscene material.
- 9 If you leave the exam room unaccompanied by an invigilator before the exam has finished, you will not be allowed to return.
- 10 Do not borrow anything from another candidate during the exam.

B. Information – Make sure you attend your exams and bring what you need

- 1 Know the dates and times of all your exams. Arrive at least ten minutes before the start of each exam.
- 2 If you arrive late for an exam, report to the invigilator running the exam.
- 3 If you arrive more than one hour after the published starting time for the exam, you may not be allowed to take it.
- 4 Only take into the exam room the pens, pencils, erasers and any other equipment which you need for the exam.
- 5 You must write clearly and in black ink. Coloured pencils or inks may only be used for diagrams, maps, charts, etc. unless the instructions printed on the front of the question paper state otherwise.

C. Calculators, dictionaries and computer spell-checkers

- 1 You may use a calculator unless you are told otherwise.
- 2 If you use a calculator:
  - (a) make sure it works properly; check that the batteries are working properly;
  - (b) clear anything stored in it;
  - (c) remove any parts such as cases, lids or covers which have printed instructions or formulae;
  - (d) do not bring into the exam room any operating instructions or prepared programs.
- 3 Do not use a dictionary or computer spell checker unless you are told otherwise.

D. Instructions during the exam

- 1 Always listen to the invigilator. Always follow their instructions.
- 2 Tell the invigilator at once if:
  - (a) you think you have not been given the right question paper or all of the materials listed on the front of the paper;
  - (b) the question paper is incomplete or badly printed.
- 3 Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and/or on the answer booklet.
- 4 Do not start writing anything until the invigilator tells you to fill in all the details required on the front of the question paper and/or the answer booklet before you start the exam. Do not open the question paper until you are instructed that the exam has begun.
- 5 Remember to write your answers within the designated sections of the answer booklet.
- 6 Do your rough work on the proper exam stationery. Cross it through and hand it in with your answers.

Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use, including those used for rough work.

E. Advice and assistance

- 1 If on the day of the exam you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, tell the invigilator.
- 2 Put up your hand during the exam if:
  - (a) you have a problem and are in doubt about what you should do;
  - (b) you do not feel well;
  - (c) you need more paper.
- 3 You must not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions.

F. At the end of the exam

- 1 If you have used more than one answer booklet and/or any supplementary answer sheets, place them in the correct order.

Place any loose additional answer sheets inside your answer booklet. Make sure you add your candidate details to any additional answer sheets that you use.

- 2 Do not leave the exam room until told to do so by the invigilator.
- 3 Do not take any stationery from the exam room. This includes the question paper, answer booklets used or unused, rough work or any other materials provided for the exam.
